1                   Stephen J. Donell, the court-appointed Permanent Receiver (the "Receiver") for Defendant
 2 Plus Money, Inc. and Relief Defendants The Premium Return Fund Limited-Liability Limited
 3 Partnership, The Premium Return Fund II Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, The Premium
 4 Return Fund III Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, Return Fund, LLC, Return Fund II, LLC, 5 Return Fund III, LLC, Return Fund IV, LLC, Return Fund V, LLC, Return Fund VI, LLC, and
 6 their subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively with Plus Money, Inc., the "Receivership Entities"),
 7 appointed pursuant to this Court's Preliminary Injunction and Order: (1) Freezing Assets;
 8 (2) Appointing a Permanent Receiver; (3) Requiring Accountings; and (4) Prohibiting the 9 Destruction of Documents (the "Appointment Order"), entered on May 16, 2008, hereby submits 10 this First Interim Report of Receiver and Petition for Instructions (the "Report") pursuant to Local 11 Rule 66.1(e) and the Order in Aid of Receivership entered on June 11, 2008.

12                   Pursuant to the Appointment Order and law governing federal equity receivers, the 13 Receiver has been charged with, among other things, assuming control over the Receivership
 14 Entities and their assets ("Receivership Assets"); performing an accounting of the assets and 15 financial condition of the Receivership Entities; investigating, locating, and recovering
 16 Receivership Assets; preparing reports for the Court; and preparing an appropriate claim
 17 allowance and investor/creditor distribution plan. Although the Receiver has successfully 18 obtained documents and records from the sources identified below, his document analysis and 19 recovery efforts remain incomplete. As described more thoroughly in this Report and in the Initial 20 Forensic Accountant's Report filed concurrently (see Declaration of James T. Schaefer [hereinafter 21 "Schaefer Decl."] ¶ 2, Ex. A), the documents and records obtained to date provide only a partial 22 explanation of the past and present financial condition of the Receivership Entities, including the 23 financial transactions and business in which they engaged.

24                   Due to the volume and nature of the information acquired to date, the shortness of time
 25 between the receipt of information and this Report, the complexity of the matters analyzed by the 26 Receiver and his professionals, and the need for significant additional information, this Report is 27 preliminary. The Receiver may need to materially modify its contents after further investigation
 28 and consideration. As discussed below, although the Receiver and his professionals have made

1 significant progress in their investigation and recovery efforts, a great deal of work remains to be 2 done.

3 I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND.

4 On April 28, 2008, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the 5 "Commission") filed its Complaint For Violation of Federal Securities Laws (the "SEC
 6 Complaint") against Defendants Matthew LaMadrid ("LaMadrid") and Plus Money, Inc., and 7 various Relief Defendants, accompanied by an Ex Parte Application of Plaintiff Securities and 8 Exchange Commission for Temporary Restraining Order: Orders: 1) Freezing Assets; 9 2) Requiring Accounting; 3) Prohibiting the Destruction of Documents; 4) Expediting Discovery; 10 5) Appointing a Temporary Receiver; and Order to Show Cause re Preliminary Injunction and 11 Appointment of a Permanent Receiver. On April 30, 2008, this Court issued a Temporary 12 Restraining Order freezing assets and prohibiting the destruction of documents by the Defendants
 13 and Relief Defendants, and issued an Order to Show Cause set for May 14, 2008. The Court
 14 entered the Appointment Order on May 16, 2008, with the consent of the Defendants and Relief 15 Defendants.

16 On July 7, 2008, LaMadrid filed a Motion to Stay Civil Proceedings Pending Resolution of 17 Criminal Action (the "Stay Motion"), seeking to stay the case based upon his claim that a possible
 18 criminal indictment against him, stemming from the same conduct underlying the SEC Complaint, 19 warranted a stay. The Receiver and the Commission filed separate Oppositions to the Stay Motion 20 on July 25, 2008. The Stay Motion will be heard on August 11, 2008.

21 II. SUMMARY OF RECEIVER'S ACTIVITIES AND EFFORTS.

22 A. Assertion of Jurisdiction.

23 The territorial jurisdiction of this Court – and thus of the Receiver – is extended to any 24 district of the United States where Receivership Assets are believed to be located. 28 U.S.C.
 25 § 754; see also Haile v. Henderson Nat'l Bank, 657 F.2d 816, 822 (6th Cir. 1981). Based on 26 information obtained by the Receiver to date, the Receiver has filed the SEC Complaint and 27 registered the SEC Complaint and Appointment Order in United States District Courts in 28 Colorado, Pennsylvania, and Wyoming, in conformity with 28 U.S.C. § 754 and applicable federal

1 law. As additional information becomes available, the Receiver may file/register the SEC
 2 Complaint and Appointment Order in other districts.

3       B.     Employment Of Professionals.

4       Section VI(G) of the Appointment Order vests the Receiver with the authority to employ
 5 professionals to assist in his efforts. To date, the Receiver has engaged (i) the law firm of Allen
 6 Matkins Leck Gamble Mallory & Natsis, LLP to serve as Receiver's counsel and assist in the 7 performance of his duties; (ii) James T. Schaefer, CPA, to serve as the Receiver's principal 8 forensic and tax accountant; (iii) the firm of LECG, LLC to assist with computer forensics and 9 imaging; and (iv) Document Technologies, Inc., a service utilized to scan and produce searchable
 10 PDFs of files in the possession of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (the "FBI"). The Receiver
 11 anticipates that it may be necessary to utilize the services of a private investigator in order to assist 12 with further discovery and recovery of Receivership Assets.

13       C.     Document Recovery.

14       As of the date of the Appointment Order, none of the Receivership Entities operated a 15 physical office, and the Receiver has not discovered any single, complete repository of the 16 business documents and records relating to the Receivership Entities. As a consequence, the 17 Receiver has been required to obtain documents and records from a variety of sources, including,
 18 but not limited to the following:

19           1.     Documents Obtained From the FBI.

20       Shortly after his appointment, the Receiver and his professionals contacted the FBI and the 21 Assistant United States Attorney's Office in order to obtain copies of Receivership Entity
 22 documents gathered by the FBI in connection with search warrants executed prior to the entry of 23 the Appointment Order. The FBI has specialized procedures for releasing or allowing for the 24 duplication of documents in its possession, arising from chain of custody and security concerns.
 25 The Receiver negotiated a procedure whereby the Receiver was allowed to access and duplicate 26 certain Receivership Entity documents in the possession of the FBI. To date, a total of 27 approximately 3,000 pages have been recovered, largely consisting of partial bank and brokerage 28 statements and related documents.

1                   2.        Computers Obtained From the FBI.

2                   The Receiver also requested the turnover (after the FBI's review and imaging were 3 complete) of computers and computer components obtained by the FBI. On June 19, 2008, the 4 computers were transferred to the custody of the Receiver's computer forensic specialist, LECG,
 5 who imaged the computers to assist in the Receiver's investigation. (See Declaration of Sergio 6 Kopelev (hereinafter "Kopelev Decl.") ¶¶ 4-6.) The computers were then transferred to the 7 Receiver's forensic accountant for further review and analysis; LECG has retained the images of 8 the hard drives it created.

9                   3.        Documents Obtained From the Commission.

10                  On May 20, 2008, the Receiver formally requested access to any Receivership Entity
 11 documents and records possessed by the Commission. (See Declaration of Joshua A. del Castillo 12 (hereinafter "del Castillo Decl.") ¶ 2, Ex. A.) The Receiver's access request was subsequently 13 granted on May 27, 2008. (del Castillo Decl. ¶ 3, Ex. B.). The Commission produced copies of 14 Receivership Entity documents to the Receiver shortly thereafter. The Commission's production 15 was voluminous, and included partial bank and brokerage statements and related documents.

16                  4.        Documents Obtained From LaMadrid.

17                  The Receiver requested from LaMadrid the originals of all Receivership Entity documents
 18 or records in his possession or under his control. (del Castillo Decl. ¶ 4, Ex. C.) In response,
 19 LaMadrid, through his counsel, Joseph Casas, produced electronic copies of documents previously 20 produced in a pending state court case<sup>1</sup>. Subsequent requests for additional documents were met 21 with the response that LaMadrid had produced all Receivership Entity documents in his 22 possession. (del Castillo Decl. ¶ 5, Ex. D.) Notably, as of this date, LaMadrid has not delivered 23 originals of any of the produced documents to the Receiver.

24                  LaMadrid's limited cooperation to date has restricted the Receiver's current knowledge of 25 the Receivership Entities or LaMadrid's explanation for any of the historical transactions being 26 investigated by the Receiver. LaMadrid's counsel has suggested that LaMadrid would likely assert 27

1 his Fifth Amendment privilege<sup>2</sup> in the event that the Receiver seeks any formal discovery from 2 LaMadrid. (del Castillo Decl. ¶ 6, Ex. E.) As a result, the Receiver anticipates that any additional 3 Receivership Entity documents or records will have to be obtained from other parties and 4 reassembled into a coherent record without LaMadrid's assistance or cooperation. This will 5 necessarily complicate and increase the costs of the Receiver's efforts, as LaMadrid is likely the 6 only party with a working knowledge of the source and use of Receivership Assets.

7       5.     Documents Obtained From Gaines & Welsh Financial Services.

8       On July 11, 2008, the Receiver served a document subpoena upon Gaines & Welsh
 9 Financial Services ("Gaines & Welsh"), a financial services firm that had prepared certain tax
 10 documents for the Receivership Entities at the behest of LaMadrid. The Receiver requested copies
 11 of all documents and materials, including, but not limited to, financial statements, accounting 12 materials, tax returns and schedules, and electronic materials referring or relating to the 13 Receivership Entities. Gaines & Welsh made an initial production of documents containing tax 14 returns and associated materials on July 9, 2008, and a supplemental production on July 29, 2008.

15       6.     Receivership Entity Mail Recovery.

16       Immediately upon his appointment, the Receiver contacted the United States Postal 17 Service to request that all mail addressed to the Receivership Entities be forwarded to him. The 18 Postal Service has complied with his request, and is now forwarding Receivership Entity mail
 19 directly to the Receiver.

20       The Receiver also learned from the United States Postal Service of an entity called 21 Commercial Mail Receiving Agency ("CMRA") located in El Cajon, California that is owned and 22 operated by Mr. Ken Kaghazchi. The Receiver made demand on CMRA that all mail received by 23 the CMRA addressed to any Receivership Entity be forwarded to the Receiver. As of this date, 24

25       2 As the Receiver notes in his Opposition to LaMadrid's Stay Motion, an individual defendant is 26 not permitted to invoke his Fifth Amendment privilege with respect to the records of a
 27 collective entity, such as a corporation. See In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 383 F.3d 905, 910 n.1 28 (9th Cir. 2004) (citing Wilson v. United States, 221 U.S. 361, 380 (1911)). Therefore, the production of Receivership Entity documents, computers, and other materials containing historical statements therefore should not implicate LaMadrid's right against self-incrimination.

1 the CMRA has failed to comply and no Receivership Entity mail has yet been recovered from this 2 source.

3 III. INVENTORY OF RECEIVERSHIP ASSETS.

4 A. Frozen Bank Accounts.

5 The Appointment Order froze the following accounts believed to contain Receivership
 6 Assets:

Institution	Account holder	Account # (last 4 digits)
Bank of America	Matthew LaMadrid, dba Vision Quest Investments	xx9593
California Bank & Trust	Matthew LaMadrid	xx6026
Charles Schwab & Co.	The Premium Return Fund I	xx0141
Charles Schwab & Co.	The Premium Return Fund II	xx7535
Charles Schwab & Co.	The Premium Return Fund III	xx2121
Charles Schwab & Co.	Matthew Eric LaMadrid	xx1748
Charles Schwab & Co.	Matthew Eric LaMadrid	xx6563
Charles Schwab & Co.	Matthew Eric LaMadrid	xx3398
Huntington National Bank	Palladium Holding Company	xx0645
Huntington National Bank	Palladium Holding Company	xx1167
Huntington National Bank	Donald Lopez	xx7895
EKN Financial Services	Palladium Holding Company	xx5861

20 The Receiver provided each of the above financial institutions with a certified copy of the 21 Appointment Order, followed by a request that the financial institutions turn over to the Receiver
 22 any and all funds held in the name of (or controlled by) the Receivership Entities. In response, 23 two of these financial institutions turned over a total of $64,816.80 to the Receiver. In addition,
 24 another institution turned over $61,805.12 held in the name of Palladium and Lopez.

25 Following the turnover of funds, the Receiver served document subpoenas upon many of 26 the above financial institutions in an effort to recover additional materials documenting the 27 financial activities of the Receivership Entities. These subpoenas are outstanding, and as of the 28 date of this Report, no additional documents have yet been produced. Nonetheless, the Receiver

1 expects that further materials will be received that will assist in reconstructing the Receivership
 2 Entities' history and financial activities.

3           B. Assets of the Individual Defendants.

4           The Defendants and Relief Defendants were required by the terms of the Appointment
 5 Order to file detailed and complete schedules of their assets, including all real and personal 6 property exceeding $5,000 in value, and all bank, securities, futures, and other accounts, identified
 7 by institution, branch address, and account number. The accountings were to include a description
 8 of the source(s) of all such assets. As of this date, LaMadrid has not provided such an accounting, 9 and indeed has recently delivered a letter to the Court requesting a clarification of the 10 Appointment Order or an exemption from this requirement in connection with his apparent
 11 decision to exercise his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination. (del Castillo Decl. ¶ 7, 12 Ex. F.) LaMadrid has not provided the Receiver with sufficient documentation to enable him to 13 provide the Court with an accounting of Plus Money, Inc.'s assets, other than as presented in 14 connection with the Initial Forensic Accountant's Report.

15           C. Prospective Recovery of $10 Million In Assets From Palladium and Lopez.

16           Shortly after his appointment, the Receiver entered into discussions with the Commission
 17 and counsel for Relief Defendants Palladium Holding Company ("Palladium") and Donald Lopez
 18 ("Lopez") in connection with the Commission's allegation in the SEC Complaint that Palladium 19 and Lopez had been the recipients of a $10 million transfer of Receivership Assets. As a result of 20 these discussions, the Commission, the Receiver, Palladium, and Lopez have negotiated the terms
 21 of a settlement agreement, subject to Court approval, whereby Palladium and Lopez will disgorge
 22 to the Receiver $10 million<sup>3</sup>, the Commission will dismiss its prayer for relief against Palladium
 23 and Lopez in the above-captioned matter, and the Receiver, on behalf of the Receivership Entities, 24 will dismiss the Receivership Entities' claims against Palladium and Lopez in a case pending in the 25 United States District Court for the Southern District of California (La Madrid, dba Vision Quest
 26 Investments, a sole proprietorship; Premium Return Fund Limited Liability Limited Partnership, 27

28           <sup>3</sup> The anticipated settlement agreement contains no admissions of wrongdoing on the part of Palladium or Lopez.

1 LLLP, a Nevada Domestic Limited Partnership; Premium Return Fund II Limited Liability
 2 Limited Partnership, LLLP, a Nevada Domestic Limited Partnership; Premium Return Fund III
 3 Limited Liability Limited Partnership, LLLP, a Nevada Domestic Limited Partnership; Plus 4 Money, Inc., a Nevada Domestic Corporation v. Heriberto Lopez Perales, an individual; Donald E.
 5 Lopez, an individual; Hreidar Bjornsson, and individual; Maarten Van Leenen, an individual;
 6 H&W Price Less, Inc., a Texas Corporation; Palladium Holding Company, a Colorado
 7 Corporation; and Does 1-50, Case No. 08-cv-0823) (the "Parallel Case").

8       Although the contemplated settlement agreement has not been finalized or approved by the 9 Court as of the date of this Report, the Commission, the Receiver, Palladium, and Lopez entered 10 into a Stipulation and Request for Order to Amend Preliminary Injunction, filed with the Court on 11 July 17, 2008, in order to modify the Appointment Order so as to allow Palladium and Lopez to 12 make the described $10 million disgorgement to the Receiver. As of the date of this Report, a 13 total of $61,805.12 has been received by the Receiver from Palladium and/or Lopez. The 14 Receiver has been advised by Palladium's and Lopez's counsel that he should receive the balance
 15 of the subject $10 million shortly. The settling parties anticipate submitting a finalized settlement
 16 agreement to the Court for approval soon thereafter.

17 IV. FINANCES AND BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP ENTITIES.

18       The Receiver's forensic accountant, James T. Schaefer, has performed an initial analysis of 19 the Receivership Entity documents and records obtained to date, and has prepared an Initial 20 Forensic Accountant's Report outlining his tentative conclusions regarding the financial condition
 21 and business of the Receivership Entities. (Schaefer Decl. ¶ 2, Ex. A.) The Initial Forensic 22 Accountant's Report, and the present recommendations of the Receiver, are based upon the 23 following:

24       A. Receivership Entity Business.

25       The SEC Complaint alleges that LaMadrid solicited investors to invest in the Receivership 26 Entities, which, he represented, were engaged in covered call option trading. The Receiver has 27 recovered some PowerPoint presentations likely used in connection with the solicitation of 28 investments in the Receivership Entities, along with a number of monthly statements suggesting

1 that the Receivership Entities conducted some securities trading. In addition, the Receiver has 2 obtained a number of Excel spreadsheets that purport to represent allocation of trading profits and 3 corresponding returns to investors; however, no documentation directly confirming the identified
 4 returns has been obtained. As noted throughout this Report, the Receiver's document recovery
 5 efforts are incomplete and ongoing.

6 B. Document Review and Analysis.

7 The documents and records obtained to date have been organized, reviewed, and correlated
 8 by the Receiver's forensic accountant in order to better understand and document: (1) the structure
 9 the Receivership Entities and the inflows and outflows of funds within and between the 10 Receivership Entities; (2) the business, if any, conducted by the Receivership Entities; (3) those 11 persons or entities who may be in possession of Receivership Entity documents, records, or assets;
 12 and (4) any gaps in the record and additional recommended analytical steps.

13 The Receiver has recovered over 650 monthly bank and brokerage statements (including 14 duplicates) for the Receivership Entities. These statements provided inadequate details regarding 15 transactions identified (e.g., only a portion of the actual deposit slips, checks, wire transfer 16 documents, cashier's checks, etc. underlying the subject transfers have been recovered.) As a 17 result, the conclusions expressed in the Initial Forensic Accountant's Report are preliminary and 18 may change based upon the recovery of additional information.

19 Based upon a review of the documents and records currently possessed by the Receiver, it
 20 appears that investors in the Receivership Entities contributed funds to the various Return Fund
 21 entities, which entities then invested in a 99% limited partnership interest in the Premium Return
 22 Fund Entities, which were themselves controlled by Defendants LaMadrid and Plus Money, Inc.

23 Potentially as a result of Plus Money, Inc.'s and LaMadrid's generalized control of the 24 Receivership Entities, and as suggested in documents recovered from Gaines & Welsh<sup>4</sup>, it appears
 25 that there was significant commingling of assets among the Receivership Entities, and that a

26
 27
 28

<sup>4</sup> A letter from Gaines & Welsh dated September 18, 2007 and recovered from the FBI indicates that Gaines & Welsh, while serving as a tax preparer for many of the Receivership Entities, was "unable to make the books balance," and that Gaines & Welsh was informed by LaMadrid that investor funds could not be properly tracked because there had been no accounting performed by the Receivership Entities. (Schaefer Decl. ¶ 2, Ex. A.)

1 complete accounting of investor funds or Receivership Entity assets will be time-consuming and 2 laborious.

3 The financial documents produced by Gaines & Welsh do provide some insight into the 4 financial activity of the Receivership Entities, and seem to indicate that funds in excess of $9
 5 million were transferred from the Receivership Entities to Vision Quest Investments, a dba of 6 LaMadrid. (Schaefer Decl. ¶ 2, Ex. A.) In addition, Gaines & Welsh appears to have used a 7 "plug" (generally used to describe a figure needed to balance an account which is wholly unknown 8 in origin or otherwise unsubstantiated) of $12 million, occasionally characterized as "loans" to 9 Defendant Plus Money, Inc., to balance the Receivership Entities' accounts. (Id.) To date, the 10 Receiver has not recovered any documents that confirm that the Receivership Entities entered into 11 any loan transactions with Vision Quest Investments or any other entity, save the occasional 12 characterization of the $12 million in "plugs" as loans to Plus Money, Inc.

13 C. Initial Impressions of the Business of the Receivership Entities.

14 The documents obtained to date create the impression that:

- 15 • The Receivership Entities kept no reliable accounting of reported profits and losses arising in connection with their call option trading or other activities;
- 16 • Distributions to investors may have been made from funds recovered by later investors;
- 17 • There was significant commingling of assets among the Receivership Entities;
- 18 • The Receivership Entities' accounts were out of balance at least in the amount of $12 million, as reflected by Gaines & Welsh's use of the term "plug" in their accounting; and
- 19 • Funds in excess of $9 million were transferred from the Receivership Entities to Vision Quest Investments, a dba of LaMadrid.

20 Because the Receiver's investigation and document recovery efforts are ongoing, the 21 conclusions presented are tentative, and may require modification after further investigation and 22 consideration.

1     V. PENDING LITIGATION AND RELATED PROCEEDINGS2         At the time of the Receiver's appointment, the following litigation was pending involving 17 Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, declaratory relief, breach of contract, 18 constructive trust, money had and received, conversion, fraudulent transfer, fraud, theft, and 19 negligence. Pursuant to his appointment, the Receiver now has exclusive control and authority

20 over the claims of the Receivership Entities in this case.21     VI. INDIVIDUALS AND ENTITIES OF INTEREST.22         The Receiver and his professionals have compiled a list of individuals and entities who 23 may be in possession of Receivership Entity documents or records, Receivership Assets, or both.
24 Although the Receiver's information is incomplete, the following partial list identifies individuals
25 and entities who have some relationship to this case, or may be in possession of information,
26 documents, or assets directly related to this case:

Investors in the Receivership Entities contributed funds to the various Return Funds, which entities then invested in a 99% limited partnership interest in the Premium Return Funds, which were themselves controlled by Defendant Plus Money, Inc.
2	Palladium Holding Company	Relief Defendant in this action and Defendant in the Parallel Case. A Colorado corporation alleged in the SEC Complaint to have received a wire of $10 million in Receivership Assets on November 14, 2007.
3	Donald E. Lopez	Relief Defendant in this action and Defendant in the Parallel Case. Palladium's sole director.
4	Vision Quest Investments	A dba of LaMadrid and Plaintiff in the Parallel Case. As alleged therein, LaMadrid, through his dba, Vision Quest Investments, transferred $10 million in Receivership Assets to certain Defendants in the Parallel Case. Documents obtained by the Receiver suggest that funds in excess of $9 million were transferred from the Receivership Entities to Vision Quest Investments.
5	Heriberto Lopez Perales	President of H&W Priceless, Inc. and Defendant in the Parallel Case. Alleged to have requested a transfer of $10 million in Receivership Assets.

1		$10 million in Receivership Assets through LaMadrid or Vision Quest Investments.
2	Melanie Heisey	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
3	Megan West	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
4	Chris Kumlin	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
5	Randy Kuehne	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
6	Rodolfo Mora	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
7	Joseph Goodman	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
8	Jonathan Benedict	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
9	Edward Moreno	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
10	Douglas Russell	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
11	Cynthia Russell	Plaintiff in the State Court Case alleged to have invested in one or more Receivership Entities.
12	Lance LaMadrid	Defendant in the State Court Case and brother to LaMadrid alleged to have been an employee of Plus Money, Inc. and principal of the Receivership Entities.
13	Eric Montiel	Defendant in the State Court Case and alleged to have been an employee of Plus Money, Inc. and principal of the Receivership Entities.
14	Richard Kassler	Defendant in the State Court Case and alleged to have been an employee of Plus Money, Inc. and principal of the Receivership Entities.

23                   In addition, a number of alleged investors in the Receivership Entities have provided the 24 Receiver with unsolicited information regarding individuals and entities who may bear some 25 relationship to this case, including other business ventures allegedly overseen or managed by 26 LaMadrid or associated individuals. The Receiver has not obtained any documentation that 27 confirms these alleged relationships and further investigation may be warranted. These 28

1 individuals and entities of interest include: Eduardo Alcaraz, Eric Anderson, Kevin Fallis, James
 2 Hyatt, Steven Jones, Ron Jones, Penne LaMadrid, Michael Mauricio, Edgar Pacheco, Moises
 3 Pacheco, Southland Title Company, and E & M Property Management, All States ATM, Inc, Ken
 4 Kaghazchi, and myniteshift.com.

5 VII. CREDITORS AND CLAIM AMOUNTS.

6 At this state of his investigation, the Receiver is unable to identify all investors and 7 creditors of the Receivership Entities or to determine their alleged respective claims. Specifically,
 8 a reliable investor database has not yet been discovered, analyzed, or created. As a result, the 9 Receiver defers to a subsequent report any discussion of creditors, claim amounts, and a claims
 10 process or plan for distribution. The Receiver is in the process of modifying his website, 11 www.fedreceiver.com, in order to enable investors and/or creditors to register with the site, 12 thereby providing an additional source of information to develop an investor/creditor list.

13 VIII. RECOMMENDED FURTHER INVESTIGATION AND ACTIVITIES.

14 The Receiver's efforts to recover relevant Receivership Entity documents and records are 15 ongoing, and the materials obtained to date do not provide a complete understanding of the 16 Receivership Entities' history and financial activities, or the location and amounts of remaining 17 Receivership Assets. In part, the Receiver's document recovery efforts have been hampered by 18 LaMadrid's failure to provide original documents or explanations, and his failure to provide the 19 Court with an accounting of his assets, as required by the Appointment Order. In addition, neither 20 LaMadrid nor the Receivership Entities appear to have kept regular, coherent, or comprehensive 21 financial records.

22 A lack of direct access to the individual likely to be the greatest source of information on 23 the Receivership Entities requires that the Receiver and his professionals assemble a collection of 24 relevant materials – and thereby develop a complete understanding – from a variety of third party 25 sources. Nonetheless, the Receiver is confident that such an assembly is possible, and that an 26 appropriate and thorough documentation of the Receivership Entities' history and financial 27 activities, their assets, and likely investor and creditor claims will be developed.

28

1       In the near term, the Receiver and his professionals make the following recommendations 2 in connection with their efforts to better understand and document the financial condition and 3 activities of the Receivership Entities:

4       A.     Continue Document Recovery Efforts.

5       The Receiver's document recovery efforts are incomplete. As an example, an analysis by 6 LECG of the Receivership Entity computers recovered by the FBI indicates that none of the 7 computers contained an accounting system or other accounting information for the Receivership
 8 Entities. However, the analysis did indicate that a minimum of four Receivership Entity
 9 computers remain unrecovered (and were not seized by the FBI). (Kopelev Decl. ¶¶ 5-11.)

10       The Receiver has served document subpoenas upon numerous financial institutions
 11 believed to have held Receivership Assets, in an effort to better document the Receivership
 12 Entities' history and financial activities. The supplemental document production from Gaines &
 13 Welsh is currently being reviewed. The Receiver further intends to serve document subpoenas 14 upon additional third parties believed to be in possession of Receivership Entity documents or 15 assets, including upon some individuals and entities identified in Section VI above. In addition,
 16 the Receiver reserves the right to depose any individual or entity believed to possess information
 17 relevant to his charge, as defined by the Appointment Order.

18       B.     Continue Receivership Asset Recovery Efforts.

19       As noted, the Receiver has negotiated the terms of a settlement agreement with the 20 Commission, Palladium, and Lopez, subject to Court approval, which should result in a net return
 21 of $10 million in Receivership Assets to the Receiver.

22       As significant a step as this potential settlement represents, the investigation performed to 23 date by the Receiver's forensic accountant suggests that a total in excess of $34 million in the 24 aggregate was invested in the Receivership Entities, and that a minimum of $12 million of the 25 investments remain unaccounted for. The $10 million recovery anticipated in connection with the 26 Receiver's potential settlement with the Commission, Palladium, and Lopez represents nearly 30% 27 of this amount.

28

1 As additional documentary evidence is acquired, it may be possible to better identify the 2 location of outstanding or currently unaccounted for Receivership Assets. Once located, the 3 Receiver will proceed with recovery efforts, including the initiation of claims against third parties
4 in possession of Receivership Assets.

C. Maintain and Expand Lists of Individuals and Entities of Interest.

6 Investors in the Receivership Entities have provided the Receiver with unsolicited
7 information regarding additional business ventures allegedly overseen or managed by LaMadrid or 8 other affiliated individuals or entities. A complete and evolving database relating to these 9 individuals and entities could prove an invaluable tool in uncovering and accounting for additional 10 Receivership Assets.

11 | IX. CONCLUSION.

12 Based on the Receiver's preliminary investigation and findings as described above, the 13 Receiver recommends and requests that the Court order that the receivership continue pursuant to 14 the Appointment Order and any supplemental orders issued by the Court. The Receiver requests
15 that the Court approve his continuing investigation and this Interim Report. The Receiver will file 16 another report updating the Court of further findings in approximately 90 days, pursuant to the 17 Order in Aid of Receivership.

18 The Receiver and his professionals have worked without compensation since the inception
19 of this case. The Receiver contemplates filing the first set of applications for interim
20 compensation on or about September 15, 2008, as authorized by the Appointment Order and Order
21 in Aid of Receivership.

PROOF OF SERVICE

I am employed in the County of San Diego, State of California. I am over the age of 18 and not a party to the within action. My business address is 501 West Broadway, 15th Floor, San Diego, California 92101-3541.

On July 30, 2008, the foregoing document (with accompanying declarations referenced on the face page) was served via NEF notice to the following parties who are registered ECF filers in this case:

Attorney for SEC

Peter Del Greco, Esq.
John M. McCoy III, Esq.
U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
5670 Wilshire Boulevard, 11th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90036

Receiver

Mr. Stephen J. Donell
